Numb. 4924

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 8. to Saturday November 10. 1711.

Vienna, Octob. 21. N. S.

ORders have been given here for the ſpeedy Recruiting the Regiments which are in Hungary; and as this Court are under no Apprehenſions of any farther Commotions in that Country, it is believ'd ſeveral of thoſe Regiments are intended to reinforce the Army on the Rhine againſt the next Campaign. Yeſterday Monſieur VVyberg, the King of Denmark's Envoy Extraordinary, ſet out from hence for Milan, in order to compliment the Emperor in his Maſter's Name; and ſeveral other Perſons of Diſtinction are preparing to depart from hence for Inſpruck, upon Advice, that his Imperial Majeſty is expected there towards the End of this Month. It is believ'd his Majeſty will not continue long at that Place; for which Reaſon, the Officers of his Houſhold are order'd to repair forthwith to Frankfort. No Day is yet fixed for the Coronation; but this Court are employ'd in providing the Sums neceſſary to defray the Expences of that Solemnity. Several great Remittances have already been made for that Service; and ſome Perſons have engaged for all the reſt upon certain Conditions, which it is believ'd here will be readily approv'd by his Imperial Majeſty.

Dreſden, Octob. 23. N. S. Our Letters from Poland adviſe, that a Contagious Diſtemper has carry'd off great Numbers of the Inhabitants of Lublin, and begins to appear at Mohilow in Lithuania, and in the Neighbourhood of that Place. The Senate have ſent a Deputation to the King of Poland, wherein they repreſent to his Majeſty, the Hardſhips impos'd on the ſeveral Palatinates through which the Muſcovite Forces are marching under the Command of General Baver, in order to join his Czariſh Majeſty's Troops in Pomerania. They complain that thoſe Forces obſerve no Diſcipline; that they exact large Supplies of Forage and Proviſions in their March, and oblige the Poles to furniſh Draught-Horſes for all their Waggons. Theſe Letters add, that the Army under the Command of the Crown-General continues encamp'd on the Frontiers, where they ſuffer much from the Severity of the Seaſon; but it is believ'd, that they will not break up from thence, till an Anſwer is return'd to the Letters ſent ſome time ſince to the Grand Vizir, relating to the King of Sueden's Paſſage into his own Dominions. As it is uncertain what Reſolution will be taken by the Turks in that Affair, the neceſſary Orders are given for the Defence of the Paſſes, if there ſhould be Occaſion; and the Muſcovite Generals are directed in that Caſe, to aſſiſt the Forces of the Republick. Some Advices tell us, that the Grand Vizir had propoſed to the King of Sueden to return home through Tranſilvania; but his Majeſty has not yet thought fit to declare himſelf on that Point; and in Caſe the King ſhall inſiſt upon a Paſſage through Poland, the Convoy appointed for that Purpoſe, will be directed to attend him no farther than to Lemburg.

Hamburgh, Octob. 30. N. S. They write from the Camp before Stralſund, that the Czar of Muſcovy is ſpeedily expected in Pomerania, in order to have an Interview with the Kings of Denmark and Poland; notwithſtanding which, we have ſome Letters from Torgow adviſing, that his Czariſh Majeſty propos'd to go directly to Elbing, and proceed from thence into his own Dominions. The Hereditary Prince of Muſcovy will continue in Germany this Winter, and remove with his Princeſs, in the Spring, to Moſcow. All our Letters from Pomerania agree, that the Swediſh Garriſon in Stralſund is very much in want of Proviſions; and, that ſeveral of the Soldiers die ſuddenly there as well as in the Camp of the Danes. The Kings of Denmark and Poland are frequently in Conference together, and Orders have been ſent to haſten the March of the Muſcovites under the Command of General Baver. The Approach of thoſe Troops gives ſome Umbrage to ſeveral Courts in the Empire; and we hear the Count de Welſeck has been diſpatch'd from Vienna to the Czar of Muſcovy, in order to induce that Prince to countermand 'em.

Briſtol, November 7. Laſt Night came in the Anne-Sloop of Boſton, VVilliam Everton Maſter, in thirteen Days from Fiall. Her Majeſty's Ships the Haſtings and Lizard are in Kingroad, and the Sarah and Hannah of London, Thomas Markin Maſter, for